

I support Video Assisted Speech-to-Speech because I have a friend with cerebral palsy who has very difficult speech to understand. She could benefit from VID-STs. I am an allied medical professional. I have been aware of land line STS for a decade. Potential users of STS include people with Cerebral Palsy, Parkinson's, ALS, and other speech disabilities.